How to ask for a quotation

When asking for a quotation, you need to be able to answer the following questions so that we can provide you with an accurate costing. The more information we have about your project, the better we can provide you with efficient and affordable design services.

- What design services/products are needed?
- 2. What is your budget?
- 3. When is the project deadline?
- 4. What do you want to achieve with the design?
- 5. What does your business offer?
- 6. What is your company's mission and vision?
- 7. What keywords describe your business?
- 8. What differentiates your business from competitors?
- 9. What do you want your branding to say about your business?
- 10. Who is your primary target audience?
- II. What designs do you like and dislike?
- 12. What designs can be used for inspiration?
- 13. Are there any restrictions or incorrect approaches?
- 14. What is provided (images, open documents, examples)?
